

SEZ supplies, Deemed exports & merchant exporters

Date: 1st February 2019, Friday.

Even though during the introduction of GST no distinction or benefit was provided in case of deemed exports and merchant exports, subsequently, in order to encourage Indian suppliers, many benefits have been provided by way of refund, lower rate of tax, etc. Further supplies to SEZ is also considered as zero-rated. However, in the initial years of implementation of GST, there exists confusions, challenges/difficulties for availing these benefits. To bring awareness on the benefits and the procedures to be followed in this regard under GST, we are conducting a seminar on "SEZ supplies, deemed exports and merchant exporters" having the below coverage:

- SEZ supplies related provisions and issues.
- Deemed export and merchant exporter benefits
- Discussions on Related Notifications and procedures
- Common issues
- Question and Answers
