

How to start Litigation Practice in GST & Making an effective reply to Show cause Notice

Coverage in a Nutshell

Litigation under GST is going to open up in FY 21-22. GST being a new law and has undergone numerous changes in the past 4 years. It is now time for department to test the positions taken by the taxpayers from their standpoint. In this background, in order to be ready to face the departmental officers, it becomes imperative for professionals to equip themselves with the nuances of the litigation practice to effectively manage and safeguard the interest of its clients.

In this background, we are conducting a session on the topic "How to start litigation practice in GST and Making an effective reply to Show Cause Notice", which would broadly cover the following:

- ❖ Nuances of litigation practice;
- ❖ Structure & content of periodic learning;
- ❖ Various tools needed to practice in litigation;
- ❖ Key skillsets to be developed;
- ❖ How to handle departmental officers;
- ❖ Importance of statutory interpretations & legal maxims;
- ❖ Various books to be read;
- ❖ How to study the SCN;
- ❖ Structure of SCN reply;
- ❖ Best Practices to be considered in drafting a reply;
- ❖ Checklist of areas to be covered while replying;

Programme Schedule

Date	June 18, 2021 (Friday)
4.00 to 5.00 pm	How to start litigation practice in GST (CA. Madhukar N Hiregange)
5.00 to 5.45 pm	How to effectively reply to a show cause notice (CA Ravi Kumar Somani)
5.45 to 6.00 pm	(Q&A)

Registration Details

Fees: Rs. 500/- (inclusive of all taxes)

Material: Training material would be shared with the registered participants.

Register & Pay: Click on Register & Pay for registration & payment

Speaker

CA. Madhukar N. Hiregange
(Bangalore)

CA Ravi Kumar Somani
(Pune)

For any queries regarding registration, or the program, please feel free to contact - Swaleha Shaikh, +91 9970820204 /Swaleha@hiregange.com