

Analysis of new returns under GST

Date: 15th March 2019, Friday.

GST Council in its 27th meeting held on 4th May, 2018 had approved the basic principles of GST return design and in its 28th meeting held on 21st July, 2018, GST Council approved the key features and new format of the GST returns. Further such new forms are expected to be operative on a pilot basis from April 1, 2019, and would be mandated across the country from July 19. In order to understand the concept of new returns, we are conducting a seminar on 'Analysis of new returns under GST' with the following topics

- a. Analysis of Form GST RET-1
- b. Analysis of Sahaj Return – FORM GST RET-2,
- c. Analysis of Sugam Return – FORM GST RET-3
- d. Question and answers.

This seminar would give an idea of the requirements for the purposes of filing the new returns which will help the entities to ensure timely and proper compliance.
